The State as a Jewel Merchant

Government of Queensland Forced to Protect its Gem Miners

To the rubies, opals, emeralds and blue sapphires mined in the State of Queensland which have long had their principal market in Paris have been added discoveries of orange sapphires. The gems are sold in Europe at such high prices that the amount paid to the miner is poor by comparison. The miners have now asked the Government to pool the gems and market them on community account.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh follows them much more than when they are in good health. The fact shows that greatly increased resistance to Catarrh is a tonic and sets through the blood into the nervous system of the body, thus reducing the inflammation and quelling Nature in restoring normal one.

THE ORIGIN OF GALL STONES

They are simply dried bile made up of crystalline constituents of that fluid. Very common in this disease among merchants, clerical men, shop girls, and those of sedentary habits. Prevention consists in maintaining correct action of the liver and bowels, and this is speedily accomplished by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills. No person using Dr. Hamilton's Pills will ever suffer from this disease. When a laxative is needed, when you feel out of sorts, that's the time to use Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Internut. ## A Vanishing Disease

Number of Tuberculosis Cases Are Being Gradually Reduced

A summary of the work done by the New York State Charities Aid Association during the last fifty years indicates the progress possible in fighting certain kinds of disease. The fall in the tuberculosis death rate from 1293 per thousand in 1918 to 362 per thousand in 1921 is already a matter of common knowledge. The society attributes the result to more hospitals, more visiting nurses, more dispensaries, the establishment of rural clinic service, open-air classes for tubercular children, summer camps, and recently enacted state laws of which the above are some times the result. The great progress already made, however, seems little more than a healthy start toward actual eradication. The society announces the appropriation of between $10,000 and $20,000 a year for at least five years by the trustees of the Milbank Memorial Fund, left by Elizabeth Milbank Anderson. This money will be used for tuberculosis control. The results expected are similar to those secured in Framingham, Mass., during the last five years. There, for only $2.10 per inhabitant per year, tuberculosis deaths have been reduced 67 per cent. The Milbank trustees hope for a demonstration in pulmonary disease paralleling the fall in typhoid from twenty-seven per 100,000 to less than four per 100,000. This is close to an announcement that one of our most common and deadly diseases can be made a rarity.—St. Thomas Times Journal.

Viscount Northcliffe Suspicious of Japan

Nation as Powerful as Germany Was in 1914

Viscount Northcliffe, writing personally in the Daily Mail, calls upon his countrymen to "Watch Japan." "Why," he asks, "are the Japanese people being taxed more severely than any other nation for the support of armaments?" and he gives this reply to his own question: Japanese art, Japanese industry, the constant, if tacit, desire of the people for "top life," and Japanese patriotism are very admirable, but there were two Germans, and while Japanese Liberalism, of which Three Elder Statesmen (the Genro) are much afraid, is allowed occasional expression, I know from personal observation and information that the Pan-Japanese are as powerful today in Japan as the Germans were in Berlin in 1914. He then visited Japan I said to one of our most distinguished authorities on the Far East—a Scotsman who had lived for years in those romantic islands: "What is the object of Japan?" He replied: "The control of China." "And then?" "The control of the world; for who controls China could control the world."

Norwegian Colonists for Alberta

A welcome addition to Canada's population arrived at Quebec on board the Canadian Pacific steamer "Montreal" from Liverpool, in the form of forty well-built Norwegian colonists, who were on their way to Sedgewick, Alberta, where they will engage in farming. ## Royal Pleases

Many English-Speaking People Are Descended from Charlemagne

Most of us have Royal blood in our veins but we don't know it. One famous Frenchman died in 1212. Twice married to nobles, he claimed descent from Charlemagne through his wife's line, and left four sons whose descendants can be traced right down to the present time, with the result King George V. and Abraham Lincoln are each separated from him by twenty-six generations—an honor shared by a New York farmer—Robert George Washington to four generations nearer. A Dr. Jordan says in view of all this that, through Israel, the English-speaking peoples of the world consist of inherited descendants of Charlemagne." Now we will be really good.—Montreal Gazette.

STANDARD'S 'TRADE-AT-HOME' CAMPAIGN

LIFE IS A GIVE AND TAKE PROPOSITION

No Man, Under Modern Conditions Can Live Entirely Upon Himself

EACH DEPENDENT UPON OTHERS

Citizen Who Does Not Aid in Building up Community Can Not Expect to Have Prosperity Himself

(Copyright)
There was a time in the world when a man could do pretty much as he pleased. What one man did was of little concern to any one else, for, it had little effect on anyone else. Those days are gone, however, and never will return. Today, no man can live entirely unto himself. His life is a complicated affair under modern conditions. No one man in any community is entirely independent of all others in that community. Organized society, in the form of governments, national, state and local, have recognized the new conditions and have decreed that every man must observe certain rules in his relations with his fellow men.

He must not do certain things that would endanger the health of other people in his community. He must not do such things as would disturb the peace and quiet of his neighborhood. He must remember that he owes a duty to his community.

Not Question of Right

A man may say that he has the right to spend his money where he pleases; that no one can stop him if he instead of spending his money in some city miles away from where he earns the money to pay for them. He is right. There is no law to prevent him from doing so, unless it is the law of self-preservation. The man who has the right to send his money away to some distant city instead of spending it here also has the right to send his children to that city to be educated in the schools, which his money helps to support, but he doesn't exercise that right. He sends his children to the local schools, the maintenance of which is made possible by the man who spends their money at home.

FREIGHT RATE REDUCTIONS

As announced from Ottawa, the special committee of the House of Commons on freight rates has decided upon the abrogation of the Crow's Nest agreement for one year, and has agreed upon the offer of the railways for a reduction of rates on grain of about 20 per cent, and on other basic commodities of 16.66 per cent. Premier Greenfield and A. Chard, Freight Supervisor of the Provincial Government, who have returned from Ottawa after giving evidence before the special committee believe that the decision will result in a considerable benefit to the farmers of the west, and express hope for a further convention of government wood inspectors held at Charlottetown was a great success. All government inspectors of the south were present as well as a number of municipal inspectors.

THE WEED CAMPAIGN

Harold Wooster Appointed Divisional Superintendent

Municipal districts throughout the province are intimating their readiness to co-operate with the weed branch of the department of agriculture in a general campaign for weed eradication. Letters are being received by the weed branch which indicate that the municipalities are coming into line in splendid shape in the organization to clean the province of weeds.

During the past week the appointment was announced of Harold Wooster of Nanaka, as divisional superintendent of weed inspectors for southern Alberta. Mr. Wooster has been acting as inspector for the Lethbridge district. A divisional superintendent for the northern districts will be appointed shortly.

The department of agriculture is endeavoring to perfect community organization in the weed campaign by enlisting the co-operation of farmers, and organizations of all kinds, as well as the railway companies and municipalities.

ARDENODE NOTES

A very interesting meeting of the U.F.W. was held at the home of Mrs. Chas. Dawson last Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Hixon, Mr. and Mrs. Dossavay, Mrs. Forberger and Mrs. Seale of Strathmore were visiting members. The demonstration set forth by Mrs. Horrocks and Mrs. Dawson proved to be of much interest in general and the ladies proposed that there be more of similar work done in the future.

A unanimous request was made Mr. Kirkland, manager of the C. P. R. Dairy, before the meeting and he explained the sweet cream problem which of late has caused considerable alarm among the farmers. This movement, however, is a measure set out by the Dominion government and not the provincial, as believed by some people.

After dealing with many questions Mr. Kirkland was let loose and was quite physically able to continue his journey.

It was omitted from the last meeting report that Mr. Morris and Mrs. Murphy were heartily made members of the Ardenode local.

At the close of the meeting a delicious lunch was served by the hostess. Next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. A. McKenzie, Nightingale, July 10, 2:30 p.m. Chapter "Hot Lunch"—Mrs. Dossavay. Solo—Mrs. Dawson. Address: "Care of Cream and Packing Butter" Mrs. E. Thompson. Discussion: "Co-operative Fruit Raising".

A good time is in store for you so bring a friend and come.

Calgary Exhibition

The last program ever arranged for the entertainment of Exhibition visitors has been prepared for the patrons of the forthcoming Calgary Exhibition, June 30th to July 7th. As a matter of fact, the 1922 Exhibition will be the best ever held from every point of view. All exhibit space has been taken up and many new exhibitors will appear in the buildings.

The first four days of the Exhibition will be featured by horse racing. His Excellency, Baron Byng of Vimy, Governor-General of Canada, will pay his first visit to the Exhibition on July 4th, when he will perform the official ceremonies. Thereafter until the conclusion of the Exhibition on July 7th he will be a constant visitor.

Fifty thousand invitations have been sent out to girls and boys in Southern Alberta. Red 12m and south, seventeen years of age and under, to be the guests of the Exhibition on Girls' and Boys' Day, July 7th, when a special program has been arranged for the morning beginning at 10:30 with the inspection by Baron Byng of the Southern Alberta Boy Scouts followed by an address from the grand stand platform to the boys and girls to his Excellency. A band will be in attendance for his program and Arthur McPadyen will conduct community singing. Special features of interest to the boys and girls have been added to the regular attractions program for the afternoon and evening and the management proposes to entertain all the girls and boys who accept the invitation in such a way that they will long remember Girls' and Boys' Day at the 1922 Calgary Exhibition.

Memorial Hall To Be Completed

The executive of the G.W.V.A. have negotiated a loan of $1000 from a local bank which will enable them to get on with the work of completing the hall.

Though the main part of the hall has been in use for the last eleven months, only the rough floor has been laid on the entrances, dressing rooms, lesser hall, stage etc. Carving of windows were also incomplete and doors, etc. had not been hung. This work will now be immediately proceeded with, and it will add greatly to the usefulness, comfort and safety of the hall.

The present financial condition of the hall is quite satisfactory. The G.W.V.A. present a mortgage in default of $2500, in addition to which about $700 is required to clear the light and heating plants. The completion of the hall will represent about $1800, but the generous loan of $1000 will purchase the material and the contractor, will be paid off gradually for the work now to be undertaken.

The hall when completed will represent an expenditure of between $17,000 and $18,000 and its completion will be a credit to the citizens of both the town and the country adjoining whose subscriptions made it possible.

Naturally, under present financial conditions, very few subscriptions have been coming in for some months, but the revenue from rents of the building, etc., has enabled the G.W.V.A. to keep the capital in defaultness to be paid off during the present year, and it is hoped that those who have not yet contributed, and who will have something to spare this fall, will endeavor to help the returned boys out to some extent to ease the burden they are at present carrying.

The project for the erection of a Memorial tablet in front of the hall bearing the names of the men from this district who died in service is being left with the various schools in the district.

The happy couple were Miss Maggie Kirkpatrick, niece of Mr. John Taylor, of the Nanaimo Colony, and Mr. Clifford E. Way, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Way, Strathmore. Miss Anna McKelvey, aunt of the groom, attended the bride, while Mr. John Taylor, Strathmore, was best man. The newlyweds spent several days in the city following the consummation of the happy event, and arrived back in Strathmore on Friday, when a party in their honor was held at the home of the groom's parents, when they were wished many felicitations. The groom was overseas with the 50th Battalion C. E. F., and since his return to Strathmore has been engaged in farming. The bride came out to Strathmore from Ireland over a year ago.

The Marquis of Lansdowne was a distinguished visitor to Strathmore last week, and made an inspection of the Demonstration Farm. The Marquis is a practical agriculturist, and asked many questions of Messrs. Hutton and Brown. He was very favorably impressed with his visit here.

Miss Wilhelmina Boles, nee of Kilsferry, and who with her parents was a resident of Strathmore in the pioneer days of the town, spent several days in Strathmore lately renewing acquaintances, as the guest of Mrs. A. W. Giffin.

Jackson Made Up His Mind Then Acted At Once, He Declares

"Tanlac has certainly backed up its little I ate. I had pains across my back to my head," said Ernest Jackson, Greenwald, Man, dental student in Winnipeg.

"I suffered from stomach trouble for two years and in spite of all the treatments and medicines I took I got worse all the time. My stomach was as sour as vinegar. I bloated terribly with gas and was so nauseated I could scarcely retain a thing of the kind."

The Canadian Budget

During the Great War and in the years since, men responsible for the administration of national finances have been confronted with great difficulties in balancing their annual budgets. They have had to overcome obstacles of all kinds. War expenditures have resulted in piling up national debts to unprecedented heights, the interest charges on which alone have cost enormous sums annually. Demands, care of disabled soldiers, re-establishment of soldiers, call for further large sums each year. During the war years ordinary expenditures on capital account were discontinued, and with the close of the war many services were found to have deteriorated and called for large sums of money to make good the previous years' enforced neglect.

Larger revenues had, therefore, to be obtained and there was only one way to get the money—increasing taxation. But taxation had to be imposed in such a way as to interfere as little as possible with business during the difficult period of readjustment from a war to a peace basis when the whole world was engaged in the task of restoring the normal conditions of thousands of people were ruined, and with unemployment of millions of men and women. Government officials have been forced to realize that there is a limit which any people will stand in the matter of taxation.

The problem facing finance ministers has been to raise the larger revenues needed without at the same time doing irreparable injury to the business interests of the country and thereby, in the long run, doing injury to even more and more difficulty.

British Chancellor of the Exchequer went further than those of other countries in imposing heavy, even drastic, taxation. They proceeded to increase tax taxation upon everybody, but more particularly upon the wealthier classes. The result has been that, for some years past, Britain has been steadily reducing its war debt, and in the last British budget it was possible, owing to drastic cuts in national expenditures and the imposition of a national disarmament to a marked extent, to announce a beginning in reduction of taxation. In the United States, too, there has been a reduction in the national debt since the close of the war.

In Canada, on the other hand, the enormous debt created by the war, instead of being reduced, has increased since the Armistice, and is still increasing. This has been due to the fact that the national revenues have failed to meet the extraordinary charges for interest on the debt, readjustment of soldiers, and the heavy debts on the national railways. The time had come when a halt had to be put to the further increase of the debt unless it was to become a monster which would finally bring the Dominion to bankruptcy. Reduction in expenditures had to be insisted upon, and heavier taxation had to be imposed in such a way as not to seriously interfere with business and the development of the country.

Hon. W. S. Fielding, in his first budget, made a number of drastic cuts in the estimates of the Department of Finance minister appears to have taken a leaf out of the books of British financiers. Reductions in expenditures on the national railways, on the military, on the navy, and on the public works were made in the Estimates, and even these were further reduced in the Commons, notably in the military and naval departments. The budget now announces the imposition of increased taxation, and upon transactions carried on in Customs duties, principally by way of increase in the British preferential tariff, and there is a removal of a number of restrictions to trade which should prove beneficial all round, but from a revenue standpoint these reductions are more than offset by increased taxation in other ways.

It is in the form of raising the additional revenue that Mr. Fielding is following the example of British financiers. The much needed new revenue is to come from higher taxation on luxuries, and upon transactions carried through by men and corporations of larger means and wealth. There are increased taxes levied on liquor, beer, and tobacco, and on automobiles, on bank charges, telegrams and cablegrams, on the rate of circulation of money, and through an increased sales tax. In other words, those people in the Dominion who are best able to pay are to be required to do so.

Of course, there will be criticism from those who are opposed to increased taxation, or who are in a position to issue large checks without paying for them. But it is the system which has helped drive the Dominion into the war. It is the system which has helped drive the Dominion into the war. It is the system which has helped drive the Dominion into the war.

That being the case, it follows that those who can afford to indulge in luxuries, or who are in a position to issue large checks without paying for them, must issue only small ones or none at all, should be called upon to pay. It is the system which has helped drive the Dominion into the war. It is the system which has helped drive the Dominion into the war. It is the system which has helped drive the Dominion into the war.

Standing Timber on Vancouver Island
Speaking before the Vancouver Island Association Boards of Trade, E. W. Neel estimated the standing timber of Vancouver Island at 16,000,000,000 feet. In that portion of the island which includes the Esquimalt and Nanaimo Railway belt, the Bestview district and Barkley Sound drainage basin, there are estimated to be 20 billion feet of Douglas fir and 15 billion feet of red cedar.

Yes. And They Must Keep Well and Strong

Two Interesting Letters

Toronto, Ontario—"When my husband was called back to England in 1914 I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to strengthen me as I could work. I had a feeling that I could make no work, but I am able to do my work as hard as any perfectly satisfied with your medicine. I will get it at the chemist's and I strongly recommend it to everybody I hear of suffering as I did. You may publish it if you wish."

Miss H. Hunsicker, 389 Yonge St., Toronto, Ontario.

I did not feel like working. I was in a general run-down condition with a weak back and a tired feeling so that I could not do my work. My mother was taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and recommended it to me. So I had taken it and my back is better and I am now able to do my work as hard as any perfectly satisfied with your medicine. ## Ottawa Impressions

he is a voice crying in the wilderness. He is a free trader of the Michael Clark type. Most of our free traders from the West are free traders from expediency. If Canada was increased with importations of cheaper wheat and oats than we can produce, the farmers' movement would assume a form similar to that in the U.S.A.

Conservatives like Dr. Tomin, ex-minister for agriculture, are giving valuable help to the Progressive Party in agricultural discussions. The present minister of Agriculture, Mr. Motherwell, also pays much respect to what Dr. Tomin states. Hon. Chas. Stewart is becoming one of the outstanding figures of the House. He has enhanced the good reputation which he earned politically as Premier of Alberta, and when the progressive and reactionary sections of the Liberal Party split, as they will some day, he will be one of the possibilities as Premier of Canada.

Ex-Premier Meighen is a Western man. He is not a reactionary, although he has some hard shells sitting alongside and behind him in the corner of the House. We can remember that at the general election the feeling was that Meighen was a good man, but that he had been mixed up with a loose bunch.

The Conservative Party was partly paroled of its reactionaries at last election, and some good men are developing in that party, there, including the member for Fort William, Mr. Manion, and Dr. Tomin, as mentioned above.

These impressions will be confirmed in several succeeding issues.

New pamphlets on Practical Irrigation and Summerfallow have been issued by the provincial department of agriculture.
